- Take care at the start of the route as it initially follows the AG4.
- The footpath down to the beach at Hayburn Wyke is steep with some steps.

THINGS TO SEE AND DO

Scarborough
Scarborough has plenty of grand Victorian buildings, from the Spa Complex to the Rotunda museum. It's also famous for its Bronte connections, being the final resting place of Anne.

Scarborough Castle
The North and South Bays are split by the rocky promontory that's home to Scarborough Castle, a former medieval fortress with panoramic views over the Yorkshire coastline.

The North Yorkshire Moors
The route provides a gateway into the wonderful scenery of this stunning National Park, a beautiful upland area famous for its moorland scenery. The trackbed of the former railway path hugs the cliffs of the Jurassic coastline.

TAKE A BREAK!

- There are plenty of places to eat in Scarborough, from Fish and Chips on the beach to contemporary cuisine.
- Cloughton Station, half way along the route, is now an occasional tea room; if it's not open then both Burniston and Cloughton are good alternatives.
- Hayburn Wyke Inn is an 18th Century Coaching Inn reimagined as a traditional country pub with homemade food and hand-pulled ales.

SCARBOROUGH TO HAYBURN WYKE (THE CINDER TRACK)

Scarborough to Hayburn Wyke 14 mile round trip
(7 miles each way). This is approximately 3 hours.

This lovely, traffic free route takes you along the coast from the seaside resort of Scarborough, with its spectacular castle and two sweeping sandy bays, to the secluded cove of Hayburn Wyke in the North York Moors National Park. The track bed is made from cinders which gives the route its name.

- Exit Scarborough station by the main entrance, turn left down the main A64 Falsgrave Road, and follow signs to National Route 1. After 250m, turn right off the road and join the traffic-free route at Sainsburys.
- Follow National Route 1 signs out of Scarborough passing playgrounds, skateparks and parks. You soon head into open countryside on this lovely greenway running parallel to the coast.
- At Burniston village, you can take a short detour to the quiet bay of Crook Ness. At Cloughton, the next village along, there is a great café in the old station or you can explore the nearby bay of Cloughton Wyke.
- Continue from here to Hayburn Wyke where a short walk across fields and woodland takes you to a secluded cove complete with waterfall – a perfect place for a secret picnic.
- Retrace your steps back to Scarborough, or if you're feeling energetic, continue along the track to Ravenscar, Robins Hoods Bay and Whitby.
