

Love Your Network -Grant Guidelines

Equipment or training grant for small community-led projects that benefit people or wildlife on traffic-free National Cycle Network routes in Scotland.

Communities play a crucial role in encouraging others to walk and cycle for more of the journeys they make every day, by making areas more enjoyable or interesting to travel through. The Love Your Network grant fund supports communities to make physical improvements to traffic-free sections of National Cycle Network, or to learn more about their route, by providing Love Your Network grants towards projects which will benefit people or wildlife.

Why fund this?

Sustrans only has maintenance responsibilities for a small portion of the National Cycle Network in Scotland, where we support maintenance volunteering. We encourage voluntary litter picking across all areas of traffic-free Network in Scotland, but we also aim to support those community groups that are already helping to look after their local routes or are hoping to begin, and those who simply want to learn more about their valuable local greenspaces.

People are much more likely to walk and cycle on attractive, interesting and biodiverse routes; safe, clean and green routes can make a journey more enjoyable, and increase everyone's confidence in their travel. Learning more about the amazing array of wildlife species that call these routes home can also inspire more people to explore their local National Cycle Network paths.

Communities are the greatest sources of knowledge across local areas, and often provide the most acute understanding of how to improve these stretches of the route. The Love Your Network grant fund aims to aid local communities in making the most of the remarkable assets on their doorsteps and helping the National Cycle Network in Scotland to flourish.

Who can apply for a grant?

Love Your Network support is available to constituted community groups, or organisations supporting voluntary action, eg trusts or charities. Individuals and profit-making companies are not eligible to apply.

If you are an informal group without a constitution but can otherwise demonstrate your organisation and action, please contact us so we can help with this.

What can be granted?

The Love Your Network grant has been changed to grant equipment and training bundles, rather than money. This is based on the experiences of the groups we have worked with over the last two rounds. Bundles can be chosen from those detailed below:

Permissions

Landowner permission will be required for your project if you are making changes to land or environment through tool use or management, or operating machinery on their land. Please obtain this in writing in advance of applying. If you need advice on how to do this, please get in touch.

For these applications with large changes, you will also need to demonstrate that you are covered by public liability insurance.

Where we have maintenance responsibility or where there are complex land management arrangements in place, we may not be able to support your bid.

Community involvement

The fund exists to support voluntary action by communities on traffic-free National Cycle Network routes, so please include an outline of community involvement in your application.

Please pay particular attention to how your project might reach seldom-heard groups or improve access or opportunity for everyone.

Final report

The final report asks for the impact of your project, the volunteer in-kind contribution, before and after photos, and for feedback on your experience obtaining a grant. A copy is available on request. When writing your application, please think about how you might be able to measure the impact of your work.
